

Workshop for wood-carving making a Good-luck charm of Jizo-statue

— Date —
second and fourth
Wednesday
(every month)

What is Jizo?

"jizo-statue" has been regarded as a guardian deity of travelers, children, and pregnant women in the buddhism.

You can make the Good-luck charm of Jizo in the Buddhism at the class for carving, even if you are a beginner.

You can bring your work back to your country as a souvenir.

◆ Time

<start> 2:30 (half past two o'clock pm)
 } <3hours>
<finish> 5:30 (half past five o'clock pm)

Tuition fee

3000 yen (all included)

Extra fee

● Porch for charm
1000yen (if you want)

◆ place

Gourmet chyubo Ikuta
(Izu kogen)

(1283-106 , Yawatano , Ito-city,)
from Izu kogen sta. /4min.by car
25min.by walk

Pick-up service

If you want to take pick-up service (from Izu kogen sta. to Ikuta), please let me know.

== For your attendance ==

- If you want to attend this activity, please give me a call by half past one o'clock pm at the day to make an appointment.

Telephone: 090-4360-6203 (Hitoshi Yamazaki)